Rules

(To be created as a class...)

Behavior Policies

Students will be using a multicolored behavior chart (“Rockin’ Behavior”) in the classroom. Each student has his or her own clip to move either up or down on the “guitar”. Throughout the day, depending on behavior, students will be asked to move their pins up (outstanding positive behaviors) or down (failure to follow rules or directions). Students that move down on the chart will be deducted five minutes of recess, five minutes silent snack, or will be asked to write a reflection on their behavior. Students who land at the bottom of the chart will have an email sent home to their parents. Students who make their way to the top of the week will get to choose a reward from the “Treats” bag and get a positive note home.

For students with repetitive behaviors that need to be worked on, a daily behavior sheet may be used and sent home on Fridays to be signed. If a child consistently makes their way to the top of the chart every day of the week, they will receive a reward from myself. Parents are also encouraged to use a reward system at home as well.
